ceramic \ design book:

hand made — in Italy.

“Contrariamente alle logiche industriali di questi ultimi decenni, la nostra scelta è stata quella di riportare al centro “la cultura delle mani” che l’industria manifatturiera in questi ultimi anni ha distrutto poiché ossessionata dal costo orario ed industriale. La nostra ambizione è che cielo sia una “bottega” del rinascimento del vero made in italy. Un laboratorio dove la “cultura delle mani” sconfigga la meccanizzazione estrema a favore della dignità professionale delle persone, che tornano ad essere dei maestri artigiani.”
“L’uomo è al centro del nostro progetto industriale”

“Going against the industrial approach typical of recent decades, we chose to return focus to the “culture of handmade”, a culture that the manufacturing industry has decimated in recent times in its obsession with hourly and industrial costs. We aspire for Cielo to be a Renaissance workshop of genuine Italian-made quality. A workshop where “the culture of handmade” defeats excessive mechanization, returning professional dignity to people, rendered once again master craftspeople.”
“People are at the core of our company plan”

Alessio Coramusi
CEO Ceramica Cielo

«la ceramica: è quella materia che i maestri artigiani conoscono, annusano, toccano, plasmano.
ceramic: the material
that our master crafts
people understand,
breathe, touch, and shape.»
